

A.—Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO
(Minister for Law and Education).—

(a) Thirty-one Primary Schools were upgraded to New Type Middle Schools during 1955-56 and 18 Middle Schools were started during the same year.

Thirty New Type Middle Schools and 10 Middle Schools have since been sanctioned.

Additional 5th class to Primary Schools in 600 villages is under active consideration.

(b) The Second Five-Year Plan provides for the appointment of 7,750 teachers for upgrading the Four-year Schools to Five-year Schools [and for upgrading the Junior Primary Schools] to Senior Primary Schools. All the Senior Schools will be given the 5th class and then upgraded to full fledged eight-year schools as far as possible subject to financial provision.
